—And Janet Jenkins (Socktober organizer) with her thank-you card and little Miss St. Elizabeth! (Loralyn Rich)

OCIA News

OCIA is for anyone interested in joining the Catholic faith or anyone who is Catholic and wanting to refresh themselves in their Catholic faith. Our first gathering will be a meet-and-greet and informational meeting on Tuesday, November 18th, from 7:00 — 8 :00pm. All are welcome!

Socktober Totals Are Impressive!

Socktober is over and the results are in! Our Catholic parishes jointly collected 1,367 pairs of socks! The kid-crafted envelopes placed in the pews brought-in $800.00. The boxes are sorted and ready for our four local clothing charities. Thank you to all who helped in anyway—donating, collecting, or buying. Your generosity is amazing for those in need! May God bless you all!

Memorial Candle Mass, 2025

At the 10:45am Mass this weekend, and the Oblong 9am, we have our brief "Candle Mass" ceremony where glass-encased candles are distributed to survivors of folks for whom we had funerals this past year. Praying for the dead is always a grace, as we dearly hope folks pray for us when our own time comes. May our Resurrected Lord smile on us all!

Second Collection Today, November 9

The AMS mission is to ensure all service members, veterans, and their families are able to receive Baptism, Confirmation, First Communion, Penance, and Marriage; and to benefit from consultation with a priest as these military patriots defend our rights of freedom and free speech, and face frequent transitions and uncertainty.

Please help by continuing to pray for those entrusted with military pastoral care, and for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Thank you for your characteristic generosity!
