PSR News & Youth Group News

We have PSR for K-8th grade this Wednesday, November 19 at the parish center, 6:30 pm.

High School Youth Group will meet on Sunday, November 16, in the parish center from 6:30pm—7:45pm.. Please bring your calendars as some events will be planned at this meeting.

The PSR children thanked Mrs. Kathy Staller for wonderfully and generously serving as DRE last year.

Middle school youth group first meeting.

OCIA News

OCIA is for anyone interested in joining the Catholic faith or anyone who is Catholic and wanting to refresh themselves in their Catholic faith. Our first gathering will be a meet-and-greet and informational meeting on Tuesday, November 18th, from 7:00 — 8 :00pm. All are welcome!

Men's Group

Men's group meets again on Tuesday night, November 25, at 6:00pm. The last meeting of this year will be December 9th.

Harvest Mass

It's almost here: Saturday, November 22nd, when we hold our annual Harvest Mass at Hickory Holler, 9876 E. 200th Avenue, in nearby West York. This 4:30 Mass fulfills one's weekend obligation. The renovated historic barn and silo are rustically beautiful and perfect for a Harvest Mass! After the liturgy, the gracious CCW women once again serve delicious chili, crackers, peanut butter sandwiches, and assorted drinks. You are welcome to bring a dessert to fill-out this hearty spread of a meal! —Hope to see you there, and may God bless our farmers for whom we are so very grateful!

Socktober Responses

We are getting wonderful responses from the local charity recipients of our Socktober donations.

Upper Room Ministries informed us several of their clients have never had new socks before, and are extremely thankful for them.

Robinson Clothing Center is happy knowing they can put out several new pairs of all-sizes socks for their clients throughout the cold months, and continually restock from our donations.

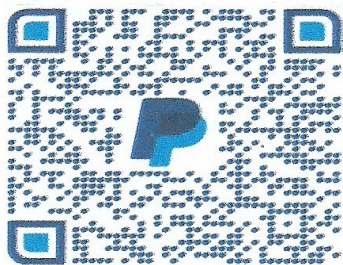

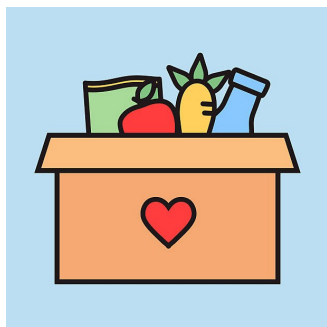

Lydia's Closet in Oblong is grateful, that in addition to socks, a monetary donation was given to them to purchase nursing bras and specialty undergarments from a quality vendor at reduced prices.

The Blessing Box (located within Southern Belle Consignments in Robinson) is excited to receive their first-time donation of socks this year.

Isn't it a great feeling to be helping others have a more comfortable winter? Thank you, all!

Robinson Food Pantry Request

The Robinson Food Pantry, located at 602 East Pine Street (Otterbein United Methodist Church) has long helped address food insecurity and budget needs for the Robinson community. But as we all have noticed with the recent government shutdown, some food costs have increased, along with the number of food pantry clients. The current budget of the Robinson pantry is so down that the charity is unsure of what Thanksgiving will look like. What is more, Otterbein is considering relocating due to significant needed repairs at their church. The charity is reaching out for monetary donations. You may donate using the Paypal QR code below or by dropping funds in the regular collection using a sealed envelope marked "Robinson Food Pantry." May God bless you for helping our less fortunate brothers and sisters.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Reading I - 2 Samuel 5:1-3

Reading II - Colossians 1:12-20

Gospel - Luke 23:35-43

Patron Saint: St. Elizabeth of Hungary

Elizabeth was born the daughter of the King of Hungary. At the age of four she was betrothed to Louis, an heir to the Central European Duchy of Thuringia (a German principality).

Elizabeth was moved to Thuringia to grow up with Louis. At the age of 14, in that ancient cultural era, they married, having grown in love. She chose a life of penance and severe discipline, when she could have enjoyed a life of luxury and leisure.

Elizabeth bore Louis three children, a son and two daughters. Under the spiritual direction of a Franciscan friar, she led a life of prayer, sacrifice, and service to the poor and the sick. Seeking to become one with the poor, she wore simple clothing and often took bread to them in the surrounding area. (Many poor would daily appear, and be fed, at the palace gate.)

Louis may have become a saint by his gracious patience with his wife since a lesser man could not have endured her severe self-discipline and penance. Louis died of the plague on his way to a crusade after only six years of marriage. Heartbroken, Elizabeth continued in her ascetic service-minded ways.

Louis's family claimed she was squandering the royal purse and mistreated her, even throwing her out of the palace. It wasn't until the return of her husband's allies that she was reinstated in the palace since her son was heir to the throne.

Elizabeth died at age 24 in 1231 after founding a hospital in the name of St. Francis of Assisi and always caring for the poor. She lived with such great love for the poor and the suffering that she is the honored patron of Catholic charities and of the Secular Franciscan Order.

Quote of the Week

How could I bear a crown of gold when the Lord bears a crown of thorns? And he bears it for me!
