Students should be picked up in the Parish Center at 7:30 p.m. Children will not be allowed to leave without a parent or designated adult present. If you have an older child and are comfortable with them walking to your car, please pull up to the front of the Parish Center so we can see you. Thank you for your cooperation in keeping all of our children safe.

PHONES - Students with a cell phone are asked to keep the phone on silent and not use it during class.

TEXTBOOKS – Textbooks may be taken home but it is the student's responsibility to bring it back to class. Please treat these books with care as they belong to the church and are reused each year. If a student loses or destroys a book, it should be replaced by that student.

MAKE-UP FOR MISSED CLASSES – If a child should miss class for any reason, they may be asked to complete the missed lesson at home and return the completed material to their PSR teacher. Textbooks may be taken home but it is the student's responsibility to bring them back for class.

CANCELLATIONS - If Robinson Schools cancel because of weather, PSR classes will also be cancelled that evening. In case of bad weather later in the day, please check the parish Facebook page or your email for cancellation notices.
