These meals are served at Robinson Free Methodist Church, 301 South Robb Street. Join us from 3:00 to 6:00 PM. Spread the news!

Mission Sunday, July 20th

This last weekend of July 20th we were honored to host Father Severine Msigiti, representing The Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady Usambara, Diocese of Tanga in northeast Tanzania, Africa.

Fr. Severine did not arrive in time for Saturday's vigil Mass. (On his behave we heartily apologize for any inconvenience.) Still, we were fortunate to have him celebrate all three Sunday Masses to share his moving missionary story. We collected jointly through the generous offerings of both parishes $1908.00, making us missionaries ourselves! Thank you so much, and May God Bless You.

A Prayer for Peace

God of peace, when my life feels overwhelmed with chaos, I turn to You. Calm the storms raging in my heart and mind. Grant me the peace that surpasses all understanding so I may rest in Your presence despite turmoil around me. Help me to release my anxieties, and to trust that You are in control of every situation. May Your peace guard my heart and mind, keeping me steady and focused on Your goodness. Amen!

Quote of the Week

"Jesus, help me to simplify my life by learning what you want me to be, and becoming that person."

—St Therese of Lisieux

Saints Joachim and Anne

Earlier this very weekend (July 26) we celebrated the feast day of Sts. Joachim and Anne, the parents of our Blessed Mother, and the grandparents of Our Lord Himself. There is every likelihood their influence on Christ's formative years was considerable, as it was on their beloved daughter of many holy titles, including Queen of the Universe.

From Father David

Sisters and brothers, I need some extra prayers please for some dear friends I've known for years. This young couple live in Wisconsin near Milwaukee, are the parents of four little ones, and are in a tough situation. The fourth child—a precious little girl named Perpetua—was just born after a very difficult pregnancy. Her road ahead looks quite challenging, but this strongly-Catholic family is very prayerful, close-knit, and united in faith. I am doing my humble part to recruit additional prayers for them. Will you help us? Will you please pray for little Perpetua, her mother Lizzy, her dad Michael, and her three older siblings?

Mike was a seminarian classmate of mine, kind and brilliant and in love with the faith. He discerned out of religious formation in an honorable way, and then met—and fell in love with—Lizzy, a very kind Catholic young lady. The rest, as they say, is history. They were married in a stunningly beautiful traditional Catholic ceremony, and remain staunchly Catholic.

Here is part of Mike's recent text message to me: (Quote). "Lizzie is doing well, delivery went far better than expected, two minor miracles of her going into labor three hours before her induction and our transverse baby suddenly being rightly oriented in the last moment, circumventing a C-Section.

Perpetua has been in the NICU since birth. There were a dozen staff members, and a dozen cables plugged into her keeping everything working. She's stable now and in good hands. Current prognosis, is high probability of Down syndrome, multiple gaps in the digestive line, including in the esophagus, which means multiple surgeries, upwards of a 6-12 months hospital stay (looking like 6 months) and lifelong upkeep. Breast milk is through a tube for that duration. There's a minor abnormality in her brain, and several in the heart, but none are severe enough to concern the docs. Everything else looks okay. She was baptized today in anticipation of surgery, whereafter more information will follow.

God's hand is evident throughout. His will be done. All will be well, thanks in large part to prayers and sacrifice. Thank you, again; means more than I can express feeling the strength of Mother Church bearing our littlest one to God's mercy." (Unquote).

Again, parishioners of Our Lady of Lourdes, and St. Elizabeth, I appreciate very much you adding your own prayers for Perpetua and this amazing young family! Thank you!
